“...a challenging consideration of what it means to be a Christian educator in a culture other than your own”

Product Description

Teaching Cross-Culturally is a challenging consideration of what it means to be a Christian educator in a culture other than your own. Chapters include discussions about how to uncover cultural biases, how to address intelligence and learning styles, and teaching for biblical transformation. Teaching Cross-Culturally is ideal for the western trained educator or missionary who plans to work in a nonwestern setting, as well as for those who teach in an increasingly multicultural North America.
